Copyright Transfer of Research Papers Published in Journal of the Faculty of Agriculture

Faculty of Agriculture, Kyushu University

Dean Atsushi YOSHIMURA

Faculty of Agriculture, Kyushu University decided to register Journal of the Faculty of Agriculture in Kyushu University Institutional Repository (QIR) and open its digital papers to the public through the internet, dating back to the first issue. Copyright transfer is not specified in Journal of the Faculty of Agriculture issued in or before 2002. Thus, all copyrights of papers appeared in the Journal issued in or before 2002 must be transferred to Faculty of Agriculture Kyushu University. The Faculty will not raise objections to, or take steps to prevent, the use by the authors themselves of their paper which the copyright is owned by the Faculty. Please contact the Editorial-in-chief (Shinya KOGA) by the end of September in 2011, if authors (or bereaved family who have inheritance rights) don't agree to the copyright transfer to Faculty of Agriculture, Kyushu University. If there are no contacts from authors, we will assume that authors have agreed to the copyright transfer. The digital versions of the papers published in or before 2002 will be opened to the public after the end of September in 2011.

Editorial-in-chief Shinya KOGA
